Internship in Zaragoza

Accommodation

We understand that traveling to a new city can be overwhelming, and it is our goal to make the experience as stress-free as possible. We work closely with each group to determine their specific needs and preferences to ensure a comfortable and fulfilling stay.

We take care of arranging suitable accommodations for each group that comes to Zaragoza. Working with a wide network of suppliers, from hotels to apartments with whom we maintain daily contact, allows us to offer the best options available for you.

We have a range of lodging options you can select from depending on your preferences. These include:

Accommodation only

Accommodation + breakfast

Half-board basis

Full-board basis

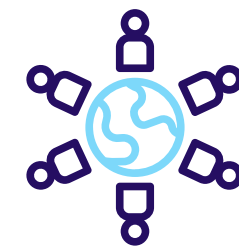

All accommodations are conveniently located near the heart of the city.

- ✓ You will find all the necessities you need very close to you. You can also take a leisurely walk to the lively city center where you can find the must-see tourist spots.
- ✓ Our locations are also easily accessible by public transportation, so you can explore other parts of the city with ease.

All the necessary information will be shared during the On Arrival Training.

This welcome meeting is an opportunity to talk about the main aspects of your mobility and to answer any question.

You may share accommodation with other students, allowing you to immerse yourself in a multicultural and youthful student environment

If you see a camera in a common area, you should not worry about your privacy, as recordings are checked only in case they are needed (burglary or breaking of furniture) and only by security responsible or by law enforcing agencies.
